DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-4, 8 and 9 in the reply filed on July 14, 2009 is acknowledged.

Claims 5-7 and 10-14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Drawings

Figures 1 and 2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 4 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 2808383 to Kubota Corp. (Kubota).

Kubota discloses a water-lifting apparatus comprising a suction tank 1, a discharge tank 2, a pump 3 for pumping from tank 1 to tank 2 through discharge piping 6, actuating means 7, 8 for driving the pump 3, a reverse flow mechanism for preventing back flow from the discharge tank that includes (claim 3) a reverse flow prevention valve 13 distally located in the piping from the tank and (claim 4) siphonic tubing arranged at a discharge end proximal to the tank, And back flow rate control means for controlling the flow rate of the backflow from the discharge piping when the operation of the pump is stopped that includes (claim 8) a mechanism to reduce the blade angle of the pump (see Abstract).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kubota above in view of JP 2797822 to Hitachi Ltd. (Hitachi).

Kubota discloses all of the limitations substantially as claimed except for the reverse flow preventing mechanism including a dam disposed in the discharge tank. However, dams are well known in the art as a means of preventing backflow, and Hitachi teaches one such water-lifting apparatus that uses a dam 10 to prevent backflow toward a discharge piping 5. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified the water-lifting apparatus of Kubota with the dam of Hitachi as a further means of ensuring that the water lifted by the pump did not recede back when the pump was shut off.

Claim Objections

Claim 9 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claim has not been further treated on the merits. The examiner would like to note that the preliminary claim amendments filed

April 4, 2006 would have obviated this objection, but that those amendments were not entered on formal matters.
